NFSN-USA Receives Official 501(c)(3) Tax-Exempt Status from the IRS

San Juan, Puerto Rico — The National Family Strengthening Network – USA (NFSN-USA) proudly announces that it has been officially recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

This designation formally establishes NFSN-USA as a public charity, reinforcing its institutional credibility, transparency, and commitment to serving families and communities across the United States through evidence-based programs and initiatives.

The recognition enables NFSN-USA to receive tax-deductible contributions, participate in federal and private funding opportunities, and expand its operational capacity through strategic partnerships with public, private, and nonprofit sectors.

“This recognition represents a significant milestone in our institutional development,” stated the Executive Directorate of NFSN-USA. “It strengthens our ability to scale our impact nationally and to implement sustainable solutions that address the most pressing challenges affecting families.”

As a federally recognized nonprofit organization, NFSN-USA will continue advancing its mission through a comprehensive model that integrates prevention, timely intervention, scientific research, and cultural transformation to strengthen family structures and promote social well-being.

With this designation, the organization reaffirms its commitment to accountability, compliance, and measurable impact, aligned with federal standards governing public charities.
